

4th Annual “Crush with Us” Harvest Celebration Returns to Bluemont Vineyard

The annual “Crush with Us” celebration returns to Bluemont Vineyard Saturday, September 4th and will be celebrated on Saturdays and Sundays through September 26th, 2021. A memorable guest favorite since 2018, The Bluemont Vineyard grape stomping experience is the ideal way to celebrate harvest season on the mountain and in Loudoun County.

New this year, the event will be set 951 feet above sea level at the very top of Bluemont Vineyard. Guests will delight in the breathtaking scenic views of the Loudoun Valley, surrounded by the Bluemont Viognier vines, offering the perfect photo backdrop. In true “I Love Lucy” fashion, participants will dip their toes into a grape-filled wine barrel and stomp their vintner’s hearts out, and then craft a kitschy keepsake by pressing their grape-stained feet onto a Bluemont Vineyard tea towel. Post stomping, guests are invited to the Tasting Room at Bluemont Vineyard to enjoy wine by the glass or bottle and a selection of a la carte items from the Bluemont Vineyard kitchen.

Tickets are $35.00 per guest and include a glass of seasonal sangria, Farm Table White or Farm Table Red, grape stomping, and a branded tea towel. Table reservations in the Tasting Room are not included in the ticket and must be made separately. Full event details can be found on the Bluemont Vineyard website at www.bluemontvineyard.com
